VOL. VII.

EDMONTON, ALBERTA, SATURDAY, OCT. 30TH, 1886.

No. 52.

TELEGRAPHIC.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 28, 1886.

Lord Lansdowne sailed for Canada to-day. The strikes in Chicago and St. Paul have been settled.

The half-breed scrip commission is sitting at Qu'Appelle.

The new Presbyterian church at Qu'Appelle has been destroyed by fire.

Several wrecks have occurred on lake Huron through recent storms.

St. Louis finally defeated Chicago for the base ball championship of the world.

There is a good deal of talk about the federal elections being brought on immediately, but there is nothing definite.

The town council of Gladstone has followed the example of Portage la Prairie and Minnedosa and resigned because of the town's indebtedness.

Among the Territorial candidates for the commons are mentioned Davin for western Assiniboia, Perley for eastern Assiniboia and Hughes for Saskatchewan.

The situation in Quebec is unchanged. The Ross government still holds office. Both sides claim a majority. Demers, the liberal elected for Iberville is dead.

The captain and crew of the Hudson Bay vessel Cam Owen have arrived in the city. The Cam Owen was wrecked off Churchill on Hudson's Bay. The crew was saved.

Work on the Hudson Bay Railway is still being prosecuted. Only forty miles will be graded this year owing to some opposition. It has been decided not at present to ask Winnipeg for a bonus.

The ceremony of unveiling the statue of Liberty took place to-day in New York. The proceedings were very imposing. Bartholdi the sculptor, DeLesseps and a number of French delegates were present.

Sir Donald A. Smith is being talked of as a compromise candidate for Winnipeg, to run as an independent for the commons and is supported by both parties. Duncan McArthur declares himself in the field against all comers.

Considerable excitement in political circles in Manitoba over attempts to commit frauds in respect to the voter's lists. In Mr. Norquay's constituency a large number of attempts have been made to qualify bogus voters, while in Springfield a number of forged declarations were put in for the reform candidate. There is also considerable scandal in connection with a disclosure of negotiations for La Riviere to throw Norquay overboard; and also of attempts to get Greenway to enter the present ministry. In North Winnipeg efforts are being made to get Conklin withdrawn because of his connection with the Springfield frauds.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 22, 1886.

On injunction of the Lieut. Governor the Quebec legislature is to be called together immediately with a view to testing the strength of the parties.

Blake speaking at Guelph last night said that he had received information within the last 24 hours that an immediate dissolution of the Canadian parliament is contemplated.

REGINA, Oct. 29, 1886.

Dr. Wilson arrived on Wednesday. The Calgary bill has been quietly passed by the council.

Dr. Wilson is added to the school and finance committees.

Cayley's motion endorsing the federal government in the Riel matter stands indefinitely.

Davin is in the field in Western Assiniboia for the federal elections. He will be opposed by Ross of Moose Jaw.

Cunningham's motion appointing a committee to consider all questions relating to the Metis was carried to-day.

Turriff's prairie fire motion got the C.P.R. roundly abused. The motion was handed to the fire ordinance committee.

Dr. Wilson's petition from the settlers of Victoria asking $300 for trail improvements was referred to the finance committee.

Reed's bill for the support of illegitimate Indian children was passed. The father is taxed a certain rate per month, payable in advance.

The civil justice bill is still under consideration. The council work is almost altogether in committee. The public sittings last about four hours daily.

Secord's motion that the present elected members constitute a committee to devise a fresh division of the Territories into districts with a view to representation at Ottawa next session was carried. Perley, Ross, Hughes, Turriff and Dewdney discussed the motion at some length.

BATTLEFORD, Oct. 29, 1886.

Weather delightful.

Barracks hospital completed.

Everything quiet but freighting.

New Presbyterian church will be opened next week.

J. G. Oliver's saw and planing mills were burned last night. The origin of the fire is unknown, but everything was apparently all right at 8:30. Fire still burning. Loss heavy.

M. McKINNON has sold 40 head of sheep to Mr. Roy. Amab. Lamoureux has taken the unsold portion of the flock to keep on shares.

JAS. INKSTER and family returned from a visit to Prince Albert on Thursday. He reports crops light and the country very dry.

L. KELLY has added hotel and stabling accommodation to his restaurant and saloon. F. Pagerie in charge of the boarding department.

X. ST. JEAN has opened an hotel, restaurant and feed stable business in connection with his saloon. C. Paquet in charge of the boarding department.

A SELVAIS of Battle river arrived on Tuesday with a large train of carts loaded for Norris & Carey. He took out loads of shingles from Fraser & Co's mill.

STURGEON people would like to have a magistrate appointed in that settlement. Owing to its distance from town and there being no resident magistrate is a great inconvenience.

M. McKINLEY sowed last spring 80 lbs. of Prince Edward Island black oats, from which he threshed this fall 52 full two-bushel sacks of clean oats, of sample equal to that sown.

A HORSE belonging to an Indian named Shemaganish was found to have been killed and partly eaten by a wolf near L. Laframboise's place at the Black Mud one night this week.

The first number of the Calgary Daily Tribune appeared on Monday the 18th inst. It is of four pages, five columns to the page, published by Braden & Baillie. It has a very large amount of telegraphic and ordinary news matter and a good advertising patronage. It is in every a credit to the publishers and to the place that supports it.

THE BULLETIN is indebted for its report of the North-West Council proceedings to the Calgary Daily Tribune, Winnipeg Free Press, Winnipeg Sun and Regina Journal, from whose reports that of the BULLETIN is condensed.

TREATY payments in the Peace hills agency were made on Friday and Saturday of last week. A number of Edmonton traders were present, including the H. B. There were a considerable number of stragglers from the Battleford reserves.

D. B. WILSON of Sturgeon river has a magnificent sample of Grant wheat, a new Ontario variety. This is its third year on the Sturgeon and it has done well, the sample of this year being better than the original seed. The grain is fully twice as large as the red life. It is a white, bearded wheat, free from smut and yielding well.

G. GAGNON's horse got loose with a buckboard from where he was tied near St. Albert bridge on Friday of last week. On Tuesday he was found in the woods near Turnip lake, stuck fast, but neither horse nor buckboard much the worse. He had travelled ten or twelve miles before being caught.

JAS. A. PETRIE recently received his land warrant as a member of Steele's scouts. An addition in red ink to the wording of the warrant reads as follows: "This warrant may be applied in respect of his homestead and pre-emption entry by the volunteer who is entitled to receive it, or his regularly appointed substitute, up to and including, but not later than, the 20th day of November, 1886; or it may be used by the volunteer who is entitled to receive it, but not by his substitute, in payment for his pre-emption entry. A. M. Burgess, deputy of the minister of the interior."

R. McKERNAN arrived from Calgary on Friday with freight for W. Johnstone Walker and Brown & Curry. He speaks highly of the courtesy shown him by the Calgary agricultural society and of the interest taken in and admiration expressed for the Edmonton exhibit by the people of Calgary. The officers of the society offered to allow the articles to be entered in competition, but as he could not comply with the conditions required of other exhibitors Mr. McKernan did not think it fair to them to accept the offer. The show of horses at the exhibition was first-class in numbers and appearance; cattle and pigs were not up to the mark, and no sheep were shown. The display of ladies' work was something wonderful, but in dairy products, grain and vegetables it was not equal to the Edmonton exhibition. There was a large attendance.

SOME two weeks ago an Indian appeared at Ft. Saskatchewan and presented to Supt. Griesbach a note from some of the authorities in the south setting forth that his name was Only Man, that he was a peaceable Indian, that during the rebellion he had lost two horses near Pitt, which he had reason to believe were in the possession of some Edmonton half-breeds, and asking Supt. Griesbach to assist him in the recovery of his property. Enquiry showed that the horses in question were in the possession of Jas. and F. Rowland, who were promptly sent for to explain. In the meantime Supt. Griesbach ascertained that the Indian's name was Lone Man not Only Man; and on referring to a list of Indians not included in the amnesty found that Lone Man's name figured as one of the party who murdered McIvor. He was therefore held for instructions from headquarters. The Rowlands explained that while they were acting as scouts for Gen. Strange's column the horses were seen running at large near camp after the fight with Big Bear, and that the general gave them permission to take them. They were well acquainted with the Indian and identified him as the Lone Man who was said to have assisted in the wounding of policeman Loadby and the killing of Cewan at Pitt. On being questioned he admitted that he had intercepted Loadby when the latter was making for the fort and that both of them fell from their horses together, but denied that he shot Loadby or took his revolver and belt from him. Since the events at Pitt he has been rusticated in the States, and no doubt returned on the strength of the amnesty, which was just not quite comprehensive enough for him.

THE REPLY.

The lieutenant-governor had good reason to express pleasure at the reply of the council to his opening address. While the council has shown a swallowing capacity that a boa constrictor might envy, its ability to swallow is more than equalled by its docility in the act. The council seems to agree with the lieutenant-governor that the unfinished business of the Ottawa delegation may be allowed to remain so. It is very well to repeat a form of words praising the delegates for what they have done, but if the work they were appointed to do is allowed to lie incomplete for lack of continued support in it by the council, blame not praise is the natural inference. If it was necessary for the council to make these demands last year is it not as necessary that the demand for such as were not granted shall be repeated this year? Or if the demand would be wrong or unnecessary this year it is natural to suppose that it was also wrong or unnecessary last year. Delegations are all very well, but results are what the public demand. It is strange if there is no member of the council with sufficient consistency to continue to press the matters upon which the same members laid so much stress last session. The position taken in the reply on the governor's statement regarding the Indians is cowardly to say the least. The reply does not boldly endorse his falsehood, and yet by the use of ambiguous terms it becomes a party to it. The sooner the idea that it is patriotic on the part of the council to deceive on the Indian question is exploded the better. That course was tried before the late rebellion. It was a failure and a costly one. Had the council done its duty then and boldly declared the truth as every member knew it the rebellion and its horrors and losses might have been avoided. In taking a similar course now the council assumes a heavy responsibility. It is never patriotic to shield administrative corruption or incompetence. It is the business of the council to attend rather to the welfare and good government of the people now in the Territories than to regard what may or may not induce others to come. A well governed prosperous community is the best immigration agency. The redeeming feature of the reply is the stand taken on the question of representative government. As the reply says, The time has come when the present system should cease—when not a few sections of the people but the whole people should be able to have their wishes expressed at the council; and when they should have not only a part of but the whole voice and vote at the council board. To say that they are not entitled to and qualified for the exercise of these rights is to discredit their judgment and libel their common sense. It is to be hoped that during the present session these questions will be pressed to a favorable conclusion.

The Calgary Daily Tribune says of the Edmonton exhibit at the agricultural show there: "The Edmonton exhibit was one of the most pleasing and meritorious features of the show. The exhibit was not entered for competition. It was brought down by R. McKernan, president of the Edmonton agricultural society, and was collected from the products of the various sections of the Edmonton district. It comprised grain and roots and vegetables of all kinds. A box of large and well-developed ripe tomatoes was among the rest. Also, tobacco! Think of it; tobacco growing luxuriantly in the latitude of Edmonton! This display as a whole we have never seen beaten at any eastern fair, and if it had been entered in competition (and we think it should have been) it would have stood a capital chance of capturing some of the first prizes. The directors desire to express their thanks to the Edmonton people for their contribution." The exhibit was awarded a diploma. A bushel of beauty of Hebron potatoes grown by D. Ross and exhibited by J. F. Smith took first prize at the Calgary exhibition.

ST. ALBERT is petitioning once more for a weekly mail from Edmonton. It seems hard that a settlement of the size and importance of St. Albert only nine miles from Edmonton should be allowed only a fortnightly mail when Ft. Saskatchewan not half as large and twice as distant has a weekly. The unreasonableness of withholding a weekly mail is shown by the fact that several of the residents of St. Albert prefer to come to Edmonton for their mail weekly rather than bear the delay of the fortnightly service. The cost to the department of the extra convenience asked for would not be more than $200 a year.

A COPY of the new administration of justice bill was received last mail from Regina. It is a bulky document of 430 sections and 125 pages, evidently prepared and printed some thousands of miles from Regina. It draws largely from the English judicature act, with some features from Ontario, Quebec, Manitoba and former North-West ordinances. It appears to substitute elaborate supreme court machinery for the simple county court practice formerly followed.

THE Regina Leader says that the five North West judges will be distributed as follows: Battleford, including Prince Albert and Pitt, Edmonton, Calgary, MacLeod and Regina.

NORTH-WEST COUNCIL.

REGINA, Oct. 13, 1886.

The North-West Council was opened at 3 p.m. to-day. Members present, Richardson, MacLeod, Rouleau, Reed, Breland, Ross, Perley, Marshall, Hughes, Cayley, Lauder, Jelly, Secord, Cunningham, Bedford and Turriff. Absent, Lieut.-Col. Irvine, Lord Boyle and Dr. Wilson. The Lieut.-Gov. wore the Windsor uniform and was accompanied by Supt. Gagnon as A.D.C.

After the speech was read Messrs. Perley, Secord, MacLeod, Hughes and Cayley were appointed to draft a reply to the address.

An order-in-council enlarging the powers of the lieutenant-governor-in-council was laid on the table. It gives power to levy direct taxation for territorial purposes and the incorporation of companies generally, with some exceptions.

Ordinances respecting the administration of justice, joint stock companies and their powers, mode of calling juries and vital statistics were introduced.

REGINA, Oct. 14, 1886.

Standing committees were named as follows: Civil Justice—Richardson, MacLeod, Rouleau, Secord, Reed and Cayley. Schools and Municipalities—MacLeod, Rouleau, Marshall, Turriff, Lauder, Hughes, Secord and Cayley. Finance—Bedford, Ross, Hughes and Jelly. Miscellaneous Subjects—Reed, Breland, Cunningham, Ross and Cayley.

Secord moved for a special committee to ask the federal government to provide accommodation for the North-West Territories supreme court.

The ordinances respecting civil justice and joint stock companies were read a second time and referred to the civil justice committee. Ordinances respecting vital statistics and the calling of juries were read a second time and carried.

The address in reply was moved by MacLeod. Jelly asked that it be printed and distributed for consideration. He was overruled and the reply was read and passed clause by clause without amendment. Clause 1 agreed as to the "wonderful progress in the North-West Territories." 2 agreed as to railway prospects and immigration. 3 agreed "That the delegates to Ottawa performed their duties carefully and well and with advantage to the country." 4 agreed as to the establishment of a supreme court, that schools and municipalities generally were working satisfactorily but that Calgary required attention, and that the Indian and Colonial exhibition had been a success. On the Indian question the reply said: "We are glad to learn from your honor, occupying as you do the position of commissioner for Indian affairs that the state of the Indians is so satisfactory. It is to be regretted, calculated as it is to deter immigration and to give false views on the question which humanity and justice would suggest should be kept out of the strife of parties, that statements are made in the east about the condition of the Indians which are known in these Territories to be without foundation." The conclusion of the reply suggested in connection with the proposed revision of electoral districts that the time had come for the council to become entirely representative and to see that no person with the qualifications of a voter was left unenfranchised. Cayley made explanations regarding this portion of the reply. The reply was passed without debate.

REGINA, Oct. 15, 1886.

Executive session held in forenoon. In the afternoon session the Lieut.-Gov. said: "Gentlemen, I beg to thank you for the address which you have been pleased to present me in reply to the opening speech. I am glad to find that the council agree with me on the chief subjects which I thought it necessary to bring to their notice."

The public accounts of the Territories from Nov. 1 '85 to Aug. 31 '86 were laid on the table.

RECEIPTS—Auctioneer licenses, $250, Pedlar licenses $75, Billiard licenses $1,494, Marriage licenses $431, Ferry licenses $25, Commissioners to take affidavits $5, Herd law $18, Fines under ordinances $148 $1, Sales of stray horses $24 25, Liquor permits $9,074 75, Notary public fees $130, Sales of ordinances $9 10, Fees under legal ordinance $226, Fees under medical ordinance $115, Refunded by school districts $109 $5, Miscellaneous $222 15, Total $6,487 71, Amount on hand Nov. 1st, 1885, $6,764 29, Total receipts $13,252.

EXPENDITURE—Clerical assistance $475, Printing $37, Postage $138, Erection of school districts $65 60, Appropriations—Broadview $247, Battleford $450, Calgary $1,075, Edmonton $591, Lorne $1,065, Moosemountain $373 67, Moose Mountain $1,001 50, Moose Jaw $469 65, MacLeod $250, Qu'Appelle $325, Regina $472, St. Albert $286 50, Miscellaneous $270 28, Appropriation for agricultural societies, vote of 1885 $100, Delegation to Ottawa $1,000, Total expenditure $8,902 76.

Cash on hand—$4,349 24.

Petitions were presented. From the settlers of Belle Plaine praying not to be incorporated in the municipality of Qu'Appelle. From R. B. Strong, barrister of Fort Qu'Appelle, asking a refund of his advocate's fee.

Correspondence was laid on the table from the Moose Mountain and Calgary agricultural societies.

Cayley introduced a bill to relieve Calgary from its municipal liabilities. Referred to civil justice committee.

Bedford moved a committee for the amendment of the prairie fires ordinance—Lauder, Marshall, Perley, Turriff, Cayley, Jelly, Boyle, Hughes, and the mover and seconder.

Ross moved that the finance committee enquire into the working of the ordinance respecting the licensing of billiard tables.

REGINA, Oct. 18, 1886.

Robert Crawford, member elect for Qu'Appelle, was introduced.

Secord presented a petition from Major Logan of the Home, Land and Cattle company of St. Louis asking the council to ask the federal government to extend the period during which cattle may be brought into the Territories duty free for one year from Sept. 1st last, when the time expired. The company intended bringing in this year 30,000 head of Texas cattle, but the drought along the line prevented. They had brought 6,000 head from Washington Territory to Wood Mountain and wished to bring in the 30,000 head next summer.

Cayley's bill re Calgary town council was passed. It provides for payment of the bills of both council's by the town and the election of a new council to hold office until December 21, 1887.

Correspondence respecting the sale of found or stolen horses was referred to the civil justice committee.

Total 34.

CONSERVATIVES—Argenteuil, Owens; Beauce Blanchet; Bonaventure, Martin; Brome, Lynch; Compton, McIntosh; Gaspe, Flynn; Hochelaga, Villeneuve; Laprairie, Charlebois; Laval, Leblanc; Maskinonge, Caron; Megantic, Johnson; Missisquoi, Spencer; Montcalm, Richard; Montmorency, Desjardins; Montreal West, Hall; Nicolet, Dorais; Ottawa, Cormier; Pontiac, Poupore; Quebec County, Casgrain; Richmond & Wolfe, Picard; St. Maurice, Duplessis; Sherbrooke, Robertson; Stanstead, Baldwin; Temiscouata, Deschenes; Vaudreuil, Laporte. H. S. Young of the H. B. Co. arrived from Lac la Biche on Saturday last. Roads good, weather fine. Twenty-seven persons had died from measles at Beaver lake and Lac la Biche. The disease was abating. Potatoes are very plentiful and crops generally are good, but hay is scarce, owing to time lost during haying at the scrip issue. The fishery is in progress now and there are prospects of a fair catch. The Beaver lake fishery was on at the time the measles was worst during the cold snap about the 16th, consequently no catch was made, and the Indians will likely be hard up this winter. The Catholic mission are putting gristing machinery in a new mill building on their old saw mill site near the mission. They expect to grind this fall. P. Pruden has given up his mill project and removed nearer the settlement. Mr. Young says in reference to the alleged repudiation at Lac la Biche by Mr. Wadsworth at the time of the scrip payment of the discharges from the Indian treaty granted by the agent, That discharges were granted in the fall of '85 to the whole of Pe-a-sis band of Lac la Biche, who were mostly half-breeds; That these discharges were all endorsed by Mr. Wadsworth and scrip granted to those who held them. That the Beaver lake band, chiefly Indians, who were rebelliously inclined in '85—who were not paid treaty and were not discharged—demanded scrip when the commission arrived but it was refused them, and That now they express themselves as satisfied to remain in the treaty. Treaty money has not been paid at Lac la Biche or Heart lake yet but has been at Victoria and Saddle lake.

A RUMOR was current in town this week that the government intended shortly to extend the telegraph system several hundred miles north or north-westward. It certainly would be of great advantage to have a line at least as far as the Athabasca Landing now. Indeed such a line is vitally necessary to the development of the northern trade.

J. Brown and J. Sinclair went out on Friday to hunt geese at the lakes on the Athabasca trail near the Sturgeon. Large flocks have stopped over at the lakes in their flight south and feed in the neighboring wheat fields.

The prizes awarded at the late exhibition amount to $313, nearly $100 more than last year. Prize winners should call the secretary-treasurer—Rev. J. H. Howard—for their money.
